In the historic setting of a first floor class room of the old north side school building erected in 1865, and in continuous use up to the present, over seventy-five people gathered for the purpose of witnessing the opening of twenty-two bids for the proposed building. Beginning with action of the school board last January and resulting in a $98,000.00 bond issue voted in March and application to the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works for a grant of $55,000.00, continuous effort has been expended by the Board of Education, School District 25 towards accomplishing this fact.

Late in April it appeared that these efforts would result in failure due to withdrawal by the government of all grants for such purposes. The board together with the Parent-Teachers Association, were successful when the PWA authorized the grant in August.

Plans and specifications drawn by architects, Godfrey E. Larson Inc., were finished by November 13, approved by the PWA, the state Fire Marshal, the State Sanitary Board and the County Superintendent.

Ground will be broken next Saturday for this modern fireproof grade school in Arlington Heights on State Road between St. James and Fremont Streets. The Tudor Gothic architecture employed by Godfrey E. Larson, Inc., architects, calls for tapestry brick with Indiana limestone trim on the exterior and groined vaults, beamed ceilings and Gothic arches on the interior. There will be 11 classrooms, with indirect lighting, several special rooms, library, auditorium with stage and a cafeteria. The auditorium can be used for all community activities, as it has a kitchen and serving room adjoining which makes it serviceable for banquets, luncheons and socials of all kinds. The PWA has approved a grant equal to 45 per cent of the total cost of the project.

ent of Schools and advertisement was made in this paper for bids to be opened on December 6.

The plans call for an eleven classroom building of brick and stone in Tudor-Gothic style to be erected on school board property between Fremont and St. James streets facing State Road.

Superintendent's office and library are situated on either side of the main entrance off the first floor corridor and nurses and teachers' room above the stair well at the south end. The basement will include a completely equipped manual training room and domestic science room as well as a play-room and auditorium space with stage and adjoining serving counter and kitchen.

Great care has been exercised jointly by the board and architect in specifying the best in materials and the most modern equipment and fixtures. Class rooms are all situated to receive either east or west light and modern indirect lighting fixtures of proved efficiency will be provided.

Class rooms will be floored with battleship linoleum and hallways and basement with asphalt tile.

The interior trim will be natural birch carrying out the Gothic theme. Built-in steel lockers are planned for the corridors with no cloak-rooms inside the rooms.

Construction will begin immediately, under the supervision of the architect and the PWA. The contract calls for completion of the building ready for occupancy before the start of school next fall at which time the two old buildings will be demolished.

The difference between the base bid and the amount of money available will be made up by additional equipment, lighting fixtures, finished hardware, certain planned changes made possible by the amount of the bid, architect's fees, attorney's fees.

This and future generations of Arlington Heights citizens may well be proud of this latest addition to the public facilities and congratulations are in order for President Nathaniel A. Carlson and the members of the Board of Education for their untiring efforts.

Business Men Offer Free Gift Show

Tickets Given With Christmas Purchases

Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect business men are offering a gift show at the Arlington Theatre two days, December 21 and 22. Tickets for the shows, which will be continuous from one o'clock in the afternoon are now being given out by fifty business men of the above two towns.

The business men have adopted this method of attracting Christmas trade in preference to the old time method of giving raffle tickets with each purchase for a few prizes, which will in turn be won by only a few of the customers. Under this year's plan every customer will participate in the prizes, which will be a two hour movie show for everybody.

The list of the stores participating will be found in another column.

The Arlington theatre has always cooperated in civic matters and the kiddies show and the merchants' gift show this Christmas season are further gestures on their part that they are ready to do their part in making the Arlington business district worthy of the patronage of people who reside in the Arlington Heights territory.

When the plan was first suggested, Mayor J. D. Flentje gave it his support and it was welcomed by practically all business men who were approached. "The Arlington Heights business men," states Mayor Flentje, "are good hosts to the general public every day of the year, but they want to be a little bit better host upon this Christmas season. As an official of Arlington Heights, I want to join with those business men and bid welcome to the business section of the town, our own citizens and those of surrounding communities. The Arlington Theatre is yours those two days and the town is yours."

"I think the idea of the free moving picture shows to be given for the people of Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect at the Arlington Theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday, December 21 and 22, is a good thing," says C. L. Griffith, president of the business men's association. "It shows the spirit of co-operation between the management of the Arlington Theatre, the various business and professional men and women of Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect, and the people of these towns. It is sort of a Christmas gift to the residents of these towns from the various merchants and professional men and women of Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect to show their appreciation to their customers and friends."

See A Movie and Help The Needy; Be A Good Neighbor

The needy of Arlington Heights will have the children to thank for many Christmas baskets and the kiddies will have the Arlington theatre to thank for a free show next Friday afternoon, December 17 in a special matinee.

The theatre is offering a free show to the kiddies and in turn asking them to bring what they can afford in non-perishable goods such as canned goods, for the Christmas baskets being prepared by the American Legion and given to the needy of the Arlington Heights community.

It is one of the many community enterprises in which the local theatre is participating in to make Arlington Heights a better community. The children have found out that there is no better place to pass the time away and no doubt there will be plenty of baskets for those who need them this Christmas. The mothers are urged to send their children to help our needy families. The theatre has arranged for a wonderful entertainment.

Safety Expert Caught Speeding at Arlington

A. E. Gustafson, a member of the Chicago Safety Council did a lot of begging before Judge Carl M. Behrens last Saturday afternoon in an effort to escape the ignominy of a speeding ticket. His "prayers" were no better than the score of "safety" membership cards and his work in safety campaigns throughout the country. It cost him $10 for speeding at 55 miles an hour through a thirty mile zone in Arlington Heights business district.

Mr. Gustafson claimed that he had been driving a car 17 years and this was the first time he had been arrested.

The pleading of Gustafson took place at the same time that a local business man was in the Herald office telling about the reckless driving of said Gustafson who had passed him near the Altenheim. "I have heard a lot pro and con about our police department," stated the business man, "but here is one case I was hoping that they were on the job, and they were."

Use "Follow Up" Methods

The Arlington Heights police department occasionally is forced to resort to "follow up" methods when violating motorists who have been given a break, forget to make good on their promises.

Recently a resident of Grand Rapids was allowed to return to his home under promise to send his fine. Failing to do so, Judge Behrens wrote the police department of Grand Rapids who sent an officer to investigate, who has now advised Arlington Heights that the money would soon be forthcoming.

NEW FOOD MART OPENS FRIDAY

The Angeloff Food Mart with a modern meat market and grocery store in addition to a grocery and produce market will open for business as a complete food store Friday. Mr. Angeloff operates at West Campbell street, the grocery and produce store for which additional room was recently provided.

The market will handle quality meats and fresh country dressed poultry.

"Now your shopping troubles are really over," says Johnny Angeloff. "With meat added to our already large stock of fine groceries and fresh fruits and vegetables, you can do all your shopping at the Angeloff Food Market."

"Come in and get acquainted. There's a free pound of lard to every meat purchaser."

Collection Of Business Licenses Nearly 100 Pct.

With only one business man in Arlington Heights holding out and with licenses issued to all laundry, bread trucks and other concerns entering Arlington Heights, that village has 99.9% record on business licenses for the past year.

The one holdout has until Thursday to pay up. In the present campaign, business men who heretofore just did not pay, have obediently walked over to the treasurer's office and laid down their ten dollars.

The Arlington Heights police department has taken the stand that if anybody is required to pay, everybody must pay and they have, except this one man.

Arrest tickets were only necessary in five cases, in each of which the business man was assessed an additional $7 for fine and cost.

Arlington Hts Responds To Seal Appeal

800 Letters Sent; 20 Per Cent Reply To Xmas Seal Chairman

Responses with Christmas Seal contributions coming in from 800 letters sent by seal workers in Arlington Heights, are being received daily by the Christmas Seal chairman of the Arlington Heights Public Health committee.

"An urgent appeal is made for immediate replies from these messengers of health, good cheer and happiness in the form of 1937 Christmas seals in order to facilitate the work of the committee," cited the Christmas Seal seal chairman.

Several interested friends have purchased the five dollar Health bonds. The purchase of seals and bonds is not an act of charity, but rather a means of obtaining health insurance for the purchaser and his community; and it is gratifying to see the number in our community who are manifesting an interest in this form of insurance.

"To date there have been sixty-one dollars in health bonds sold and total contributions from bonds and seals is $158.20. Only 20 per cent of the letters are in at this date."

"This letter with its 2 sheets of seals gives every individual in Arlington Heights the privilege of contributing, for it enables a person to invest any amount from one penny to $2.00 for Seals up to five or ten dollars for the health bonds."

Unusual Accident As Police Chief Writes Speed Ticket

Chief Herbert Skoog of the Arlington Heights police department was writing out a speed ticket in his office in the municipal building last Saturday afternoon, when a piece of indelible lead from the pencil snapped off and flew into the eye of A. W. Merriner of the Fox Hotel, Elgin.

The latter, who was a passenger in a car, whose driver was being given a ticket, was compelled to undergo hospital treatment. He has brought to Arlington Heights evidence of the infection that resulted. "Now, the village carries about every kind of insurance imaginable, but does not know if the municipality is covered in the above instance. Fortunately the eye is healing."

Special Meeting of Arlington Hts. Trade & Civic Association

Because the last Thursday in November was Thanksgiving, the regular monthly meeting of the Arlington Heights Trade and Civic Association for that month was postponed. Inasmuch as the last Thursday in December comes during the Christmas holidays, it would be unwise to hold the December meeting at that time. Therefore, a special meeting will be held some night next week at the Village Hall and all members will be duly notified in advance as to the exact date. Several important matters, including some special activity during the Christmas season, will be discussed.

Audience Hears "Truth About Germany"

An appreciative audience listened with close attention to a two hour address by Rev. H. Blanke given to members and friends of the Lutheran Laymen League last Friday on the subject "The New Germany." The speaker was master of his subject and held his audience throughout with his startling revelations on actual conditions in Germany, and his enlivening flashes of well timed humor. Facts presented by him gained by personal observation, were frequently in direct variance with reports of the Chicago newspapers. The audience was impressed with the unreliable and oftentimes vicious propaganda of American newspapers on foreign affairs.

state that he was not a Nazi propagandist, nor was he in sympathy with all the principles and program of the Hitler party. He presented himself merely as a neutral observer, who had occasion to study conditions in Germany at first hand and reported his impressions. His address contained four chief topics: Hitler, the economic situation, the Jewish problem and the religious question.

The speaker was privileged to hear Hitler address a large gathering at a party rally and he was greatly impressed with the Führer's dynamic personality. "He is an example to his people," he declared, "in the simplicity of his life, the sincerity of his convictions, the influence of his personality." (Continued on page 8)

MAYOR FLENTIE AND ALDERMEN INSPECT NEW FIRE TRUCK

H. Knaack New Owner Auto Agency

Elmo Williams Retires From Roehrer Motor Sales

Harry Knaack has purchased of Elmo Williams the Roehrer Motor Sales including the local Buick and Pontiac agency, the garage business and the building. The change occurred Monday.

Mr. Knaack has been a resident of Arlington Heights a long time and for a number of years has been in the dairy business.

He has owned and driven a lot of cars, both for business and pleasure, becoming acquainted with their idiosyncrasies until he considered himself a good judge of what a car should be.

Thus when the opportunity came to enter the garage business he could not deny that urge and he is now the proprietor of Knaack's Buick and Pontiac Sales.

Mr. Williams will remain in the employ of his successor and between Harry and Elmo and a good gang in the shop there is certain to be lots of activity around the corner at Evergreen and Eastman street.

Mr. Williams says that while a garage business has many advantages, he will welcome a release from the active responsibilities that fall upon a man who attempts to conduct a modern auto agency in this day and age. Under the new arrangement he can put his usual enthusiasm in the sale of Pontiacs and Buicks and will be on hand to greet all of his car owner friends.

"This garage," states Mr. Williams, "is in a position to continue the same service that it has given in the past and I trust that my friends and customers will look to this place for this service as they have in the past."

"Arlington Heights new fire truck is a honey," were the words of Alderman Geo. Klehm, veteran board member, Tuesday morning after he returned from Detroit. In the above snap shot the aldermen standing before the new truck obstruct the view and only a general idea is obtainable as to what the truck really looks like. "We want to make it a real surprise, when the truck arrives," explains Mr. Klehm.

The men are from left to right, George Schreber, Herbert Skoog, George Klehm, J. D. Flentje, truck driver, Walter Krause.

Arlington Heights Boy Scout Drive Nets Big Sub. Increase

The Boy Scout committee wants to thank everyone who helped make the Financial campaign a success this year.

The total amount subscribed shows an increase over last year of approximately 25 per cent. The campaign was conducted by districts this year, the village being divided into six sections with a captain in charge of the solicitation in each district.

Harry Sebert, captain of the northeast district led his team to the top position, Mrs. W. A. Miles, captain of the Stonegate district although having a much smaller number of prospects was a very close second, with the highest average amount subscribed per person. Captain Chas. Emmett brought his team up to third place with a much higher total than was subscribed in this district last year.

Other captains were Warren Feltingham, Elroy J. Harris and Neal Graham, who all made fine records. The committee knows that all citizens of Arlington Heights will be proud to learn that they are doing their part in support of the Boy Scout movement.

Children's Choir To Broadcast

Will Be Heard Over WLS, 1:45 December 18

Prompted by popular request the authorities of the WLS have invited St. Peter Lutheran Children's choir to broadcast over their station on Saturday, December 18, at 1:45 p. m.

Mr. Theo. Preuss, the well known leader of this group of talented young singers, will present a program of Christmas carols in four and five part harmonisation. This group of youngsters is a well finished singing organization, which has mastered technique found difficult by adult choirs. They sing with a fine tone quality, precise attack, and expression modulation to delight any musical ear.

Last June this group received first award in competition with similar Lutheran choirs of the state. They have appeared frequently in special events and services and have been heard frequently over various radio stations. Recently they presented a Christmas concert in co-operation with the adult choir of the church and gained new friends for their sweet-toned carolling.

All lovers of good music are invited to tune their radios on Saturday at 1:45 p. m. to WLS. If they have pleased you a card of appreciation to the station will serve as encouragement to these boys and girls and their director.

Arlington Society and Club Events

"Lady Luck," Seeing Eye Dog, Is At Mothers Club Program

The Mothers Club of the Methodist church sponsored one of the most interesting programs last Wednesday evening that Arlington Heights people have been privileged to attend in some time, when Miss Ruth Brewer and her Seeing-Eye dog "Lady Luck" appeared at the Methodist church to a capacity crowd.

Miss Brewer, a young woman of great charm and personality, told how her dog was trained at Morris-town, N. J., which is the headquarters for the Seeing Eye Institution, for furnishing the blind with trained animals.

This movement was an outgrowth of the World war, when it was found possible to save men's strength by using German Shepherd dogs for various heavy tasks. There are some 5,000 trained dogs in Germany today.

In 1928 Morris Frank went to Switzerland to be trained with a dog and after four years of scientific training, returned to organize the Seeing Eye Institution.

A dog is trained for three months, the first month it is taught discipline, the second month, it is taught to move traffic conditions which might occur in any city and the third month it is taught to realize danger and disobey its master if necessary, for protection.

Not every blind person, who applies for a dog receives one, so Miss Brewer said, and today with 120,000 blind people in the U. S., approximately 10,000 of these could use trained dogs and only 300 blind people in the U. S. actually have seeing eye dogs; of these 60 are women.

The first step in training the dog and master together is to win each other's affection and if there is not affection and harmony between them, it is impossible for the blind person to use the dog.

The dog wears a steel harness

with a U shaped handle covered with leather. The dog gets most of his signals through the harness. The word signals used by the master are forward, left and right.

The master always thanks his dog for service rendered. When guiding through traffic, the dog stops at the curb, the master listens for traffic and the dog watches for traffic. She can judge the distance of cars, and guide her master accordingly.

The dogs are trained as soon as they reach maturity, which is about 14 months of age, that the master may have them as long as possible. They live from 10 to 15 years.

The cost of training a dog is $300.00, but the cost to the blind is only $150.00 for training the dog and master together.

The German Shepherd breed of dog is used because of its hardiness and size and weight. They weigh from thirty to one hundred pounds. The dog is chosen according to the size of the individual. Miss Brewer's "Lady Luck" is a beautiful alert looking animal weighing about 45 pounds.

No one who begs may have a Seeing-Eye dog, but men in many professions use these dogs.

Miss Brewer spoke of the importance of educating the public, to refrain from interfering with the dog or its blind master, by talking to them when in motion, or by grasping the leash; for the dog will obey no one but its master and interference only confuses the blind person. In Germany dogs are taught to bite if interfered with. When Miss Brewer holds the leash, she is master of the dog, but when she holds the steel handle, the dog knows he has command.

Miss Brewer's "Lady Luck," a beautiful gray in color, with ears erect, brought her master quickly to the front of the stage and stopped at the right moment. She lay quietly at her master's feet as Miss Brewer talked. The close affection between the pair was very apparent and most appealing. Miss Brewer answered questions at the close of her talk and the children in the audience showed their keen interest by asking many intelligent questions.

Miss Roberta Stuart of the high school faculty entertained with two readings, "Ma's Monday Morning" and "A Bear Story" by James Whitcomb Riley, and Miss Selma Cunningham of the grade school faculty played two violin solos, accompanied by Miss Jansen.

Mrs. Homer Byrd, program chairman of the Mother's club, is to be congratulated for this fine program, which was enjoyed by nearly 200 people.

"Everbert Cafe" Scene of Gay Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sebert and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Everett entertained twenty friends Saturday evening at a one night opening of the "Everbert" Cafe.

As the guests approached the door of the Sebert home, they were greeted by a sign reading "Everbert" Cafe and its insignia beneath the name. The lady guests were ushered upstairs to the ladies lounge by Neva Sebert and Richard Everett, who presented each lady with a rose. The gentlemen checked their hats and coats with the boy (Kay Sebert) at the check room and received small packages of matches, bearing the name Everbert Cafe.

The guests were shown to small tables arranged around the sides of the cleared living room by the hosts, Mr. Sebert and Mr. Everett. They looked and acted like typical waiters with their black suits and black bow ties and serving napkins over their arms.

The tables were equipped with genuine restaurant table cloths and napkins, the usual small lamp and ash trays and menu booklet bearing the name and insignia "Everbert." Even the dishes, glassware and silverware were in keeping with restaurant service.

Each guest was presented with a guest menu card and asked to select his dinner. A delicious five course dinner with a choice of foods was served by two attractive young waitresses attired in black dresses with white aprons. Neva Sebert and Richard Everett passed gum, cigars and cigarettes during the meal.

At the close of the dinner the tables were cleared for bridge and the evening was enjoyed playing contract bridge. Mrs. R. E. Atkinson and Mr. Charles Emmett received high honors. At the close of the dinner the cooks, Mrs. Everett and Mrs. Sebert, appeared and received great praise for the very unusual and entertaining way they had served and were assured that they should really go into the business.

Bluebirds Make Presents

The Bluebirds, a group of girls, a bit too young for Campfire girls, but associated with that group, have formed in town and met Wednesday. The south side group met with Mrs. Hines and the north side group met with Mrs. R. Hayes. They spent the time making Christmas presents for their friends.

Birthday Party

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fessler were remembered upon their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary last Wednesday by flowers and messages of good wishes from their children and friends. Three of the Fessler children are attending schools in California; one is teaching down state and one resides in Milwaukee. Mr. and Mrs. Fessler can still enjoy the companionship of one daughter who attends the elementary school.

Ladies Aid Of M. E. Church Meets

The quarterly meeting of the Methodist ladies aid society, combining the Cleaners and the Fidelis circles, met at the church Friday evening for a general business meeting and to make plans for future events. A program of two playlets was presented by a group of Fidelis members depicting the plan of the World service movement. A social time was enjoyed and refreshments served.

Woman's Guild Of St. John Meets

The Woman's Guild of the St. John's church met last Thursday at the church for a business and social meeting. Plans were made to have a Christmas party Dec. 30, at the church. Each member is to bring a 10c gift and lunch for one. At the close of the business meeting the members visited and were served refreshments by Mesdames C. Pingel and C. Roeske.

Corephelia Christmas Party

The Corephelia Society enjoyed a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. B. T. Best, Monday evening, with Miss E. Heller assisting the hosts.

The annual election of officers was held and Mrs. Beulah Burkitt was elected president; Miss Laura McElhose, vice president; Mrs. B. T. Best, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Elliot read the story of the Child and Angel Message and concluded the devotional period with a short prayer. Mrs. Burkitt gave a reading, "Tis Holy Night In Many Lands." Group carols were interrupted by the jingle of sleigh bells announcing the arrival of Santa Claus with a bag of gifts which were distributed in his usual jolly manner.

Camp Fire Girls To Bring Xmas Cheer

Christmas cheer for others instead of a party for themselves was what the O-Co-Wasin Camp Fire Girls voted to work on this month when they held their last meeting at the home of Mrs. O. G. Barrett. They plan to make a package of home made cookies to put in each of the Christmas baskets to be distributed by the Mothers' club. This week each one is earning money to pay for materials and at their next meeting they will divide into groups to make the cookies. Mrs. C. E. McWharter, Mrs. G. R. Baxter, Mrs. J. Y. Beatty have kindly consented to give the use of their kitchens. A committee working with Mrs. A. C. Rector, handwork supervisor, has planned attractive wrappings for the packages of cookies.

This group is under the guardianship of Miss Irene Laughlin and Mrs. Chas. Ott and is sponsored by the Parent-Teacher association. Two new members, Mrs. O. G. Barrett and Mrs. J. M. "Lady Luck," Seeing Eye Dog, Is At Mothers Club Program

The Mothers Club of the Methodist church sponsored one of the most interesting programs last Wednesday evening that Arlington Heights people have been privileged to attend in some time, when Miss Ruth Brewer and her Seeing-Eye dog "Lady Luck" appeared at the Methodist church to a capacity crowd.

Miss Brewer, a young woman of great charm and personality, told how her dog was trained at Morris-town, N. J., which is the headquarters for the Seeing Eye Institution, for furnishing the blind with trained animals.

This movement was an outgrowth of the World war, when it was found possible to save men's strength by using German Shepherd dogs for various heavy tasks. There are some 5,000 trained dogs in Germany today.

In 1928 Morris Frank went to Switzerland to be trained with a dog and after four years of scientific training, returned to organize the Seeing Eye Institution.

A dog is trained for three months, the first month it is taught discipline, the second month, it is taught to meet traffic conditions which might occur in any city and the third month it is taught to realize danger and disobey its master if necessary, for protection.

Not every blind person, who applies for a dog receives one, so Miss Brewer said, and today with 120,000 blind people in the U. S., approximately 10,000 of these could use trained dogs and only 300 blind people in the U. S. actually have seeing eye dogs; of these 60 are women.

The first step in training the dog and master together is to win each other's affection and if there is not affection and harmony between them, it is impossible for the blind person to use the dog.

The dog wears a steel harness

with a U shaped handle covered with leather. The dog gets most of his signals through the harness. The word signals used by the master are forward, left and right.

The master always thanks his dog for service rendered. When guiding through traffic, the dog stops at the curb, the master listens for traffic and the dog watches for traffic. She can judge the distance of cars, and guide her master accordingly.

The dogs are trained as soon as they reach maturity, which is about 14 months of age, that the master may have them as long as possible. They live from 10 to 15 years.

The cost of training a dog is $900.00, but the cost to the blind is only $150.00 for training the dog and master together.

The German Shepherd breed of dog is used because of its hardiness and size and weight. They weigh from thirty to one hundred pounds. The dog is chosen according to the size of the individual. Miss Brewer's "Lady Luck" is a beautiful alert looking animal weighing about 45 pounds.

No one who begs may have a Seeing-Eye dog, but men in many professions use these dogs.

Miss Brewer spoke of the importance of educating the public, to refrain from interfering with the dog or its blind master, by talking to them when in motion, or by grasping the leash; for the dog will obey no one but its master and interference only confuses the blind person. In Germany dogs are taught to bite if interfered with. When Miss Brewer holds the leash, she holds the steel handle, the dog knows he has command.

Miss Brewer's "Lady Luck," a beautiful gray in color, with ears erect, brought her master quickly to the front of the stage and stopped at the right moment. She lay quietly at her master's feet as Miss Brewer talked. The close affection between the pair was very apparent and most appealing. Miss Brewer answered questions at the close of her talk and the children in the audience showed their keen interest by asking many intelligent questions.

Miss Roberta Stuart of the high school faculty entertained with two readings, "Ma's Monday Morning" and "A Bear Story" by James Whitcomb Riley, and Miss Selma Cunningham of the grade school faculty played two violin solos, accompanied by Miss Jansen.

Mrs. Homer Byrd, program chairman of the Mother's club, is to be congratulated for this fine program, which was enjoyed by nearly 200 people.

"Everbert Cafe" Scene of Gay Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sebert and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Everett entertained twenty friends Saturday evening at a one night opening of the "Everbert" Cafe.

As the guests approached the door of the Sebert home, they were greeted by a sign reading "Everbert" Cafe and its insignia beneath the name. The lady guests were ushered upstairs to the ladies lounge by Neva Sebert and Richard Everett, who presented each lady with a rose. The gentlemen checked their hats and coats with the boy (Kay Sebert) at the check room and received small packages of matches, bearing the name Everbert Cafe.

The guests were shown to small tables arranged around the sides of the cleared living room by the hosts, Mr. Sebert and Mr. Everett. They looked and acted like typical waiters with their black suits and black bow ties and serving napkins over their arms.

The tables were equipped with genuine restaurant table cloths and napkins, the usual small lamp and ash trays and menu booklet bearing the name and insignia "Everbert." Even the dishes, glassware and silverware were in keeping with restaurant service.

Each guest was presented with a guest menu card and asked to select his dinner. A delicious five course dinner with a choice of foods was served by two attractive young waitresses attired in black dresses with white aprons. Neva Sebert and Richard Everett passed gum, cigars and cigarettes during the meal.

At the close of the dinner the tables were cleared for bridge and the evening was enjoyed playing contract bridge. Mrs. R. E. Atkinson and Mr. Charles Emmett received high honors. At the close of the dinner the cooks, Mrs. Everett and Mrs. Sebert, appeared and received great praise for the very unusual and entertaining way they had served and were assured that they should really go into the business.

Birthday Party

Three of the Fessler children are attending schools in California; one is teaching down state and one resides in Milwaukee. Mr. and Mrs. Fessler can still enjoy the companionship of one daughter who attends the elementary school.

They plan to make a package of home made cookies to put in each of the Christmas baskets to be distributed by the Mothers' club. This week each one is earning money to pay for materials and at their next meeting they will divide into groups to make the cookies. Mrs. C. E. McWharther, Mrs. G. R. Baxter, Mrs. J. Y. Beatty have kindly consented to give the use of their kitchens. A committee working with Mrs. A. C. Rector, handwork supervisor, has planned attractive wrappings for the packages of cookies.

THEY WENT TO DETROIT

The man about town got a big kick listening to the various stories told by the village officials about their trip to Detroit last Sunday where they were called to inspect the new fire truck. The stories are so different that a mere scribe does not know what to write.

However, it was an important trip, there were important men engaged upon it, they were protected by police authority as evidenced by the local police car and for the benefit of the aldermen who had to remain at home, we give out the following high lights of the trip.

The weather man in Indiana did not seem to realize the importance of this delegation and at South Bend they were greeted with a blizzard with lots of snow for many miles.

The imposing police car with all of its paraphernalia were awe inspiring and as they passed through many of the hick towns the one-officer police departments would line up at attention.

During the trip Geo. Klehm demonstrated a great thirst for coffee and sandwiches and the other aldermen, hunger for huge steaks, but they blame the delay of their return home to the number of times that George insisted upon stopping to drink coffee.

According to stories of two of the aldermen present, Alderman George Schaefer ate for breakfast on Monday morning as many pancakes as "Little Black Sambo, of storybook fame." Anyway he returned home with a tummy ache and the Tuesday night's board meeting had to be postponed.

While so near the border, the Arlington Heights delegation thought they should investigate the foreign situation and invaded Canada for a supposedly fish dinner. There was no fish upon the menu and there came not being any invasion as the Canadian custom officers held the car and its occupants up a long time because they could not prove ownership by means of a state vehicle tag. After leaving all war paraphernalia at the border they were allowed to proceed.

Returning home Monday evening, they encountered four foot snow drifts at Sturgis, Michigan and would have stayed all night, but a phone message home to one of the wives revealed a doubt on the part of the latter that there were snow drifts that big. Chief Skoog took a snap shot to convince his little woman.

The fire truck company is attempting a substitution of two, but the board members insisted that the specifications be adhered to and it will not be long before the new vehicle will be in Arlington Heights.

N. B. Chief Volz could not accompany the aldermen. He had a cold, he said, but the others think that he was probably too wise.

2nd N. B. The next fire truck will be purchased in the summer time.

Returns From Germany

Mrs. Bertha Held, 1104 N. Walnut street, Arlington Heights, returned recently from a month's stay in Hanover, Germany where she visited her sister whom she had not seen for 25 years. She reports that Hitler is tremendously popular among the German citizens she encountered. Every one seemed to be employed and there was an apparent shortage of farm laborers.

Men's Club Dinner Changed To Next Week; Jack Manders To Talk

Due to the fact that so many friends of the Men's club of the Presbyterian church are desirous of hearing All American Jack Manders, the great backfield star of the Chicago Bears, the program committee has postponed the dinner originally planned for Friday to next Wednesday, so that the program will be heard during the week rather than on a week-end.

The Chicago Bears are playing Washington for the Professional football championship this Sunday at Wrigley field and Jack Manders has promised to give us the high points of this exciting game.

The ticket committee is being flooded with reservations, so be sure and make yours now. All men and boys from 8 to 80 are invited and dinner will be served promptly at 6:30 in the church dining room.

Unusual Speakers To Fill M. E. Pulpit During Pastor's Illness

The Methodist church has been particularly favored in the preachers sent to fill the pulpit during the pastor's illness.

C. A. Hughes New Farm Adviser

Assumes Position At Arlington Heights First Of Year

Mr. C. A. Hughes, former farm adviser in Monroe county, Illinois, (close to St. Louis), has accepted the position as farm adviser for the Cook County Farm Bureau to succeed Mr. O. G. Barrett and will take up his new work in Cook county on January 1.

Native Of Corn Belt

Mr. Hughes was reared on a corn belt farm near Mattoon, Illinois, was graduated from the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, in 1914, and spent the following two years in farm cost studies and agricultural extension schools.

In 1916, he became county agent (in Illinois known as farm adviser) in Monroe county, West Virginia, high in the Appalachian mountains. For two years, he rode an old gray horse up and down the valleys of this county and carried his extra socks, barettes, and soil tester in saddle pockets," states Mr. Hughes.

After a term of service in the south, Mr. Hughes worked in the Shenandoah valley, and after five years of apprenticeship, which is a requirement in Illinois, he returned to this state. Seven years were spent in Illinois in Menard county, where special attention was given livestock marketing associations.

The last twelve years were spent in Monroe county, Illinois, suburban to the St. Louis metropolitan area. During this time boys' and girls' 4-H clubs were developed, visit instruction in rural community meetings promoted, and the first farmers cooperative seed processing project developed, which is being widely copied. Other extension projects Mr. Hughes has promoted have been rural electrification, produce cooperatives, soil improvement, young rural people's organization, and hybrid seed corn. A new step on "Hybrid Seed Corn" prepared by Mr. Hughes recently has been adopted by the producing company as their official copy and is being widely distributed.

Twice State Advisers' President

Farm Adviser Hughes has been twice elected president of the Illinois Advisers' Association—the only adviser twice elected to that office.

Mr. Hughes was recommended by the state board of agriculture and the members of the Cook County Farm Bureau look forward to a successful period of service.

THEY WENT TO DETROIT

The man about town got a big kick listening to the various stories told by the village officials about their trip to Detroit last Sunday where they were called to inspect the new fire truck. The stories are so different that a mere scribe does not know what to write.

However, it was an important trip, there were important men engaged upon it, they were protected by police authority as evidenced by the local police car and for the benefit of the aldermen who had to remain at home, we give out the following high lights of the trip.

The weather man in Indiana did not seem to realize the importance of this delegation and at South Bend they were greeted with a blizzard with lots of snow for many miles.

The imposing police car with all of its paraphernalia were awe inspiring and as they passed through many of the hick towns the one-officer police departments would line up at attention.

During the trip Geo. Klehm demonstrated a great thirst for coffee and sandwiches and the other aldermen, hunger for huge steaks, but they bided the delay of their return home to the number of times that George insisted upon stopping to drink coffee.

According to stories of two of the aldermen present, Alderman George Schmeberger ate for breakfast on Monday morning as many pancakes as "little Black Sambo," of storybook fame. Anyway he returned home with a tummy ache and the Tuesday night's board meeting had to be postponed.

While so near the border, the Arlington Heights delegation thought they should investigate the foreign situation and invaded Canada for a supposedly fish dinner. There was no fish upon the menu and there came not being any invasion as the Canadian custom officers held the car and its occupants up a long time because they could not prove ownership by means of a state vehicle tag. After leaving all war paraphernalia at the border they were allowed to proceed.

Returning home Monday evening, they encountered four foot snow drifts at Sturgis, Michigan and would have stayed all night, but a phone message home to one of the wives revealed a doubt on the part of the latter that there were snow drifts that big. Chief Ekoo took a snap shot to convince his little woman.

The fire truck company is attempting a substitution or two, but the board members insisted that the specifications be adhered to and it will not be long before the new vehicle will be in Arlington Heights.

N. B. Chief Volz could not accompany the aldermen. He had a cold, he said, but the others think that he was probably too wise.

2nd N. B. The next fire truck will be purchased in the summer time.

Concert Last Sunday A Success

The Sacred Christmas concert by the choir of St. Peter Lutheran church, under the direction of Mr. Theo. Preuss, and the Concordia Teachers College band, was a huge success. A capacity audience at the afternoon performance was evidence to the fact that Arlington Heights has many music lovers. Music critics of the Northwest Suburban area did not hesitate in the least in commenting favorably upon the singing, especially that of the children's choir.

The committee in charge wishes to thank all who helped to make the program a success, especially the advertisers. A neat sum of money was realized through the sale of tickets to purchase some playground equipment for the children of St. Peter Lutheran school.

Dr. Walter A. Maier Decries Spirit of "Getting Religion"

Impressive membership statistics lose their significance in churches which do not demand of their members the full acceptance of Christ's teachings and the high standards of Christian ethics, Dr. Walter A. Maier asserted today in his coast-to-coast Lutheran Hour broadcast.

"People often speak of 'getting religion' in the sense of a sudden inspiration," Dr. Maier added,

"whereas the creed of Jesus demands more than a happy feeling or emotional uplift; it requires a rebirth of the soul, a new life, a complete regeneration."

Asserting that it often is more difficult to get an automobile license than to enroll in some churches, Dr. Maier urged these churches to insist upon the highest standards of Christian ethics even at the expense of membership figures. Christ's religion must "get" the people in soul and body, in church and out of church, on Sunday and week-day, instead of people "getting religion," Dr. Maier concluded.

1938 Fords Are Smart And Zippy

Ford V-type 8-cylinder cars for 1938 are now on display everywhere in Ford dealer showrooms. They are offered this year as two distinct lines, differing in appearance and price. Both are in the lowest price field.

One is a newly-styled standard Ford line, in coupe, Tudor and Ford body types, powered either with the 85 or the 60 horsepower V-8 engine. The standard cars are designed to meet requirements of the many motor car owners, whose means dictate maximum economy in first cost, as well as in maintenance and operating costs.

The other is a newly-designed deluxe line for owners who desire additional style and appointments. Powered only with the 85 horsepower V-8 engine, the line includes eight body types, the coupe, Tudor and Ford sedans, as well as the club coupe, convertible cabriolet, club convertible cabriolet, convertible sedan and the phaeton.

The two lines of cars have the same improved V-8 chassis, but their styling is distinctly different.

The deluxe cars are larger in appearance. The hood has been lengthened. Its nearly vertical front is carried in a "V" well down into the radiator grille, with the familiar V-8 emblem at the tip of the "V." Horizontal lines of the grille bars and the louvers are echoed in a bright rustless steel hand which is carried along the belt to the rear.

The new standard line cars also present a larger appearance, with a newly-designed front end, grille, hood and fenders. The front end is formed in a "V," with the horizontal grille bars extending unbroken along the hoodside to form the louvers.

New Postmistress At Arlington Heights

A new postmistress at Arlington Heights arrived in this world Monday evening. At least Mrs. Virginia Dodge, the mother of the charming miss of 7½ pounds, is ready to bestow upon her new daughter all of her worldly goods.

Dad is Thurman Dodge, former manager of Tibbitts Cameron Lumber Co., who is now engaged in the wholesale building trades. Congratulations have been pouring through the windows of the postoffice and if good wishes mean anything, Miss Dodge is destined to have a happy and long life, whether she some day enters politics, or remains just a home girl.

Quarter of Million Tax Objections Filed At Co. Clerk's Office

By Raymond T. O'Keefe, Jr.
More than 207,154 property owners have filed objections to taxes during the past three years, County Clerk Michael J. Flynn announced today, and of this number 80,543 were granted reductions.

Less revisions have been awarded by the county court in the 12-month period ended November 30, 1937, than in the preceding two years. Mr. Flynn disclosed. In this last period 17,252 tax orders were reduced compared to 46,148 for the year ending November 30, 1936 and 27,143 the year before that.

Coming under the jurisdiction of the county clerk as they become delinquent, the tax orders are sorted, numbered, photographed, and placed on file after disposal by the court. Photostatic copies are then bound in books affording quick and permanent reference.

Mr. Flynn has been commended by information seekers, and public officials alike for the splendid manner in which the county clerk's records have been kept since he assumed office in November, 1934.

Keeping the records safe and permanent involves many processes. As the tax orders are revised or overruled by the court, they are entered in the minute book by a clerk. They are then copied into the docket, sorted according to the years the tax was assessed and sent to the county building's photostatic room, after which they are carefully locked in a file.

Duplication of the records in the files and in the bound volumes is to lessen the possibility of their loss or destruction, the clerk's assistants declared.

In the three years ended November 30th, Michael J. Flynn, county clerk, has collected almost 4 million dollars in tax redemptions and has already returned approximately 99 per cent of this amount to the country towns and other holders of the tax warrants.

Scout District To Meet

The regular monthly meeting of the Scoutmasters Round Table of the Central District (Des Plaines, Arlington Heights, Wheeling and Mt. Prospect) will be held at the home of Scoutmaster George Hackmeister of Des Plaines, Scoutmaster of Troop 20.

Attempts To Make Rock Island Depot In 45 Min.; Cops Say "No"

When a taxi driver in Palatine promised a passenger to get him to the Rock Island depot in Chicago within 45 minutes last Saturday afternoon, he was not reckoning upon the Arlington Heights police department who flagged him down at sixty miles an hour.

The cost was $7 when the case was called for trial Monday and the taxi man said he would rather go to jail—and he did until by chance his passenger of that day, chanced to stop into the Arlington police station, discovered his friend and paid the fine.

Local Farmers Visit Minnesota Farms

The families of August Busse and Fred Pfingsten returned recently from a trip to Fairmont, Truman and St. James, Minn., where they called upon cousins and other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Busse took special pleasure in calling upon Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Rose, Truman, Minn. Mr. Truman was employed by Mr. Busse upon his farm for seven years during his boyhood, and although he left Elk Grove 15 years ago is a subscriber to the Herald to keep in touch with old time friends.

They returned home by the way of Elk Creek, Nebraska. They found crops had been good with full cribs and granaries. The trip was made in a 1926 Buick, which Mr. Busse says rivaled in action any 1937 car.

Heights Man Hogs Road; Collision; Arrested

When Matt Schevimen of Arlington Heights failed to keep on the right side of State road early Sunday morning, he drove into the car of Wilbert Vessel, of Palatine, who had turned from Palatine road. No one was hurt, but Schevimen resorted to such vehement language that the county police had to settle the matter.

COOK COUNTY HERALD

Roselle Rustlings
John Crapian had his house re-shingled by Henry Gebhardt.
Teacher Dehn and wife are the proud parents of a baby boy, born Nov. 16.
Mr. Wm. Rathje, who formerly lived at Roselle, an old and highly respected citizen of Bloomingdale township for years, died Tuesday night.

Coroner Mather, of DuPage Co. held an inquest at Hattendorf's store, Sunday afternoon over the body of Richard Cussmann, who was killed by being struck by a train while walking along the R. R. track some time after midnight Saturday. He was on his way to meet his brother at the home of Herman Landwehr north of Meacham.

Schaumburg
Henry Fasse moved last week to the old Peck place which he owns, and left the old homestead to his son, Herman. Henry is just outside the village limits; but if he will build a cement sidewalk to town, the city dads may vote to accept his subdivision on the corporation map, then he can ride on the new Schaumburg-Roselle-Palatine electric street railway when it comes.

Louis Schoenbeck says Schaumburg is the best town in Cook county and is bound to keep in the lead in all up-to-date improvements. He has a telephone now, so he can talk to the neighbors and josh his brothers over in Wheeling township. It is cheaper to pay ten cents when you want to visit, than ditch up a team and drive several miles in all kinds of weather. He is going to have a looking glass attached to his phone so he can play old over the wire and see his opponent's hand, then he can win every game. William, Henry, John, Fred, Herman and Christ, look out or Louis.

Bensenville

Paul Baucke resumed work with the Metropolitan elevated again for Saturday, Dec. 11, Emil Marquardt has decided to quit truck driving and will sell at public auction, located on Bryn Mawr Ave. between Mannheim road and River Road, commencing at 1:00 o'clock sharp, the following property:

I Need A Few People

To invest some money to develop a block of leases I own in a proven area of the Newly Discovered Oil Fields in the south central part of Illinois, where wells are being drilled in, nearly every day, producing from 100 to 1200 barrels per day. These leases are located between the Carlyle and Sandoval Oil Fields and 5 miles southwest of the new Patoka Field. Other lease holders adjoining up against my acreage, include such major oil companies as Gulf, Shell, Ohio Oil and others.

This is not a stock selling nor get-rich-quick scheme, but a perfectly legal, substantial business venture, which will be operated the same as any other legitimate business, and the group of people I select, will know at all times, where and how the money is to be spent.

The returns from your investment, if oil or gas or both is found, will be many times greater than any other form of investment you can make at this time.

I would welcome an inquiry from you at once if you are interested, and you will be shown the possibilities of large returns. Arrangements will also be made, to take a small group of those interested down to the various Illinois oil fields and to the leases I own, and let you see for yourself, and you finally to be the judge.

poration map, then he can ride on the Schaumburg-Roselle-Pal-

comes.

Louis Schoenbeck says Schaumb-

county and is bound to keep in the lead in all up-to-date improvements. He has a telephone now, so he can talk to the neighbors and Josh his brothers over in Wheel-cents when you want to visit, than to catch a train and drive several miles in all kinds of weather. He is going to have a looking glass attached to his phone so he can play

alo over the wire and see his opo-

MAC SAYS

—By—

Gerald A. Mc Elroy

It has been seldom the conference season has opened with as close scores as last Friday night. Four out of six games were decided by four points or less. In these four games the range of scoring was between 20 and 27 points. The Palatine-Ela game was the exception and it was a close battle until the Lake Zurich last really turned on the heat in the last quarter. However, Palatine could hardly hope to stay in the game with a shooting percentage of 12.5 on 48 shots of which 36 were inside the free throw line.

Niles Center Surprises Leyden

Niles Center looms as one of the strongest teams in the league following their 35-31 victory over Leyden Friday. Watson of Leyden speaks of the Niles team as being both big and fast. They are good on a quick break down the floor. Playing their third game of the week last Saturday Ela lost on the big Lake Forest court, 36-24. They had beaten McHenry 39-27 on Tuesday in a game in which they scored two baskets in the last 10 seconds, never having been ahead up to that time. Libertyville met Dundee Saturday night and lost 32-12. Dundee has three regulars from the team that advanced to the state tourney last season. The only non-conference game this week that has come to our attention is Wauconda at Barrington Saturday night, December 11.

Ela Is Not Over Rated

Wesner's team was not going as well as in the McHenry games and it is anyone's guess as to whether they will put up stiffer opposition when they meet Ela in a return game January 21.

Another Week of Close Ones Predicted

How would you pick the winners this week? Frankly we do not know. The Leyden game at Libertyville should be the top one on the schedule and anyone's guess. Warren showed her strength against Libertyville and should be the toughest kind of opposition for Lake Forest who was idle last week. Wauconda came close to beating Antioch and should have an even chance against Grant who moved out of Bensenville last week. Niles will give the Cardinals a hard battle and are the favorites. Ela looks too strong for Bensenville. Barrington is stronger than Clark has let on and may surprise Palatine. The Pirates rate as slight favorites to break into the conference win column playing on their home court.

Chicago Papers Carry Conference Scores

Did you see the Northwest Conference cage scores in the Chicago papers last Saturday morning? Do you know who is responsible for this conference publicity? Harry Kincaid, former Palatine coach and at present chemistry instructor in Crane Tech and president of the Palatine Township Board of Education, is the man to thank for this news. The schools of the conference phone their scores to Kincaid and he in turn phones them to the City News Bureau. If the scores or any games are missing it is because the school where the game was played neglected to phone in the result or got it in after the dead line of 11:00 p. m. Kincaid's number is Palatine 117. Kincaid does not receive pay for this work. He does it because of interest in conference sports.

Conference Revises Constitution

In a meeting of the Northwest conference held last week Wednesday at Grant township high school, Fox Lake, the constitution of the organization in a revised form was adopted unanimously. One change provides for the election of officers at the March meeting instead of the one held in October. Another provides for annual dues to meet the financial needs of the league. Meetings are to be held three times a year on the first Wednesday in October, December and March. These are held at the member schools in alphabetical order. The old constitution restricted membership to 10 schools. This restriction has been lifted. All schools are to be made by committees appointed by the president of the conference, but schools may play other games with conference schools besides those arranged by the authorities.

Discuss Other Matters

The rule which forbids the use of a player in a first game the same night he appears in a second team game was discussed. No action was taken but opinion generally favors the rule which has been in effect since 1935. The question of the use of the new molded ball was brought up. While only about five out of 13 schools use the ball it was thought that the home team may use any legal ball, but this year should notify the visitors if the molded ball is to be used. This ball is declared legal and will be used in the state tournaments so the matter is outside the authority of the conference. Ela, Leyden, Bensenville, Palatine and Antioch are using the new ball and most of the rest will no doubt get one before the season is very old.

Cardinals Down Barrington In First Conference Game

Arlington Overtakes Bronchos To Win, 24-20; Tornadoes Outclass Colts

Had the Arlington and Barrington high school team rehearsed their act several times they couldn't have put on much more of a thriller than they did last Friday night. The game was the first of the N. W. conference season and both teams were on edge to come out a winner. In spite of the bad weather the gym was well filled and a good crowd of Arlington fans were present.

The tempo of the evening started slowly while Arlington's "Lights" clearly out-classed the home lightweights. But as the heavyweights changed, apparently sensing the game to come the tempo of the two rival crowds increased.

The game itself began fast and gradually speeded up. The two officials were handling the game well and kept it one of the fastest cleanest games seen this year. Arlington led at the quarter 4-3, but it was only by a determination not to give up that they stayed in the game. Four goals were taken away from the Cardinals (and rightfully so) before one was allowed by the officials. Some violation of the rules, but preceding each basket nullified them. Barrington started off with a field goal. Arlington finally got a point on a free throw soon followed by another. The Bronchos added a point then Arlington rang up their first basket. Four new men went into the Cardinal lineup to begin the second quarter and they were unable to check Barrington who ran the score up on them to 14-8 at the half.

Then the real fun of the evening started. Arlington's starting lineup took the floor and began at once the task of closing the gap. Barrington fought back but during this quarter the Cardinals tallied four field goals and two free throws for ten points while the Bronchos could get only half that many, yet were still leading going into the fourth quarter 19-18.

Barrington Has Two Officials

Barrington is the only school in the conference which is hiring two officials for all her basketball games this season. A number of other schools are having two referees on a few of their important games, but Clark is the only school going the whole way. He should be commended for following such a policy. Under the new rules it is more than a one man job to keep a closely contested game under proper control and do justice to the boys who are playing. The conference has gone on record as opposing an over emphasis upon winning and striving for championships as being detrimental to the boys in a variety of ways. If the conference wants to do something which will make basketball a safer, cleaner game where respect for officials and opponents under the strictest rules in the conference, then it should require two officials. The answer that it is too expensive may be met by stating that we are convinced there are plenty of competent young officials right here in the conference who would be willing to accept a rather low fee to serve as a second man on the league games.

Rate Officials Each Week

Each week of the season Mr. Crawford of Libertyville is sending out rating sheets for each coach to fill out in which he gives his impression of the officials who officiated the game. This is a good move in the direction of improving the quality of officiating in the league.

Officials in this week's games are Havlicek and Schwartz at Palatine, Ashley and Snidell at Libertyville, McLean at Bensenville, Harshbarger at Warren, Janousek at Arlington, and Schoenheit at Grant.

Have Tough Schedule

Bensenville high usually beats the Alumni in their annual game. Last year with a green team they downed the recent graduates in convincing style. This year, however the edge appeared to be entirely with the high school, but for the first time in several years they lost 22-20. Coach Johnson has a pretty good team in prospect, but from now on has a mighty tough schedule before the holidays. Having lost a heart breaker to Grant by two points the orange team must meet Ela, Leyden and Arlington in succession. In fact Bensenville has the toughest schedule for the season of any of the small schools.

During this second half the Cardinals lost two men on personals. Milligan was the first to leave the court shortly after the second half started. O'Hagan went out just before the finish, but able substitutes in the persons of Phillip and Folkman came in for them. It was Phillip's two baskets in the third quarter that aided Arlington's cause materially.

Grismer and O'Hagan were Arlington's mainstays if any could be picked over Baxter, Mayerck and Milligan. Each of these starters played a good game as did their subs. Rice and Grabenkort were expected to score heavily for Barrington, yet each had a lot of tough luck on shots and neither scored from the floor. Both boys played a good floor game. Clinge, Shepard and Johnson shared the scoring honors.

During the game the winners took 56 shots at the basket and registered 9 times for the very ordinary 16 per cent. The losers tried 39 times, scored 6 times for about the same percent. Neither team was able to capitalize on free throws as the accompanying box score would indicate.

More substitutions were effective and the score mounted. It was 27-13 at the third quarter and 33-16 at the end.

Barrington missed numerous opportunities in the first quarter while the Green Tornadoes were wandering rather aimlessly about. The Colts were unable to get in for good shots, and registered only twice more from the field. Arlington's defensive play was vigorous and with good, close officiating, brought twenty-two fouls. Most of these were committed out in the open spaces, rather than under the basket, and will be eliminated as another play results from experience.

Many under-the-basket shots accounted for Arlington's good shooting average of twenty-seven percent. At that about five easy baskets were kicked away.

Wilkins, Etters, and Miller were the most effective players for Barrington, with G. Wendt playing a smart defensive game. Bubblitz led the Tornado attack, scoring three times in five shots although playing only about half of the game. Koelling, Koenig, and Harth were much improved. Kehe set up some nice screens for many of the good drives by his teammates, and played rebound excellently.

Twenty-eight players took part in the game.

Palatine And Arlington Hold First And Second Place In Lutheran League

Roselle Defeated By One Point At Hands of Des Plaines

Arlington maintained their place in the Lutheran Basketball League last week-end, which saw a few changes in the standings. The Arlington boys piled up the highest score of the season when they downed Norwood Park 67 to 16. The tall boys "with the three-cornered pants" took advantage of their height in piling up the large score. G. Weisgerber scored 24 points to lead his team in points scored.

Itasca moved back into third place when they beat Park Ridge 50 to 25. The Itasca team played a much better game than they had the last couple of games. Park Ridge was handicapped by the shortage of reserve strength.

Palatine swamped Glenview 41 to 12 to hold the lead in the league. Glenview slipped back into their slump and didn't offer much opposition for the strong Palatine team.

Des Plaines eked out a victory over Roselle when they won 37 to 36. It was a rather poorly officiated game. The final result might have been a little different if the officials had been a bit more strict. As it was, the teams got away with a lot of things that they would not have under ordinary circumstances.

River Grove snapped out of its slump and defeated Norwood Park 50 to 34 for their first victory of the season. The defeat dropped Norwood Park to last place in the league. E. Flick scored 23 points for his team.

Next week's games will see Arlington pitted against Des Plaines and Park Ridge against Palatine. On Sunday, Roselle will play Norwood Park. Glenview will play Itasca and Palatine will play River Grove.

Alumni To Meet Chicago Lutherans

Karstens Girls To Play Glenview Five In Twin Bill

Arlington Alumni appear to be in for a tough night next Wednesday at the high school gym, when they meet the Christ Church Lutheran boys of Chicago in the opening game at 8 p. m.

Last year the Christ Church boys tied for the championship of the Lutheran A. A.; thus far this year they are undefeated. The personnel of the Lutheran team is made up of former standout performers with North Park College, Steinmetz, Schurz and Foreman high schools.

The Alumni boys are playing a good style of ball this year as evidenced by their one sided victory last week over the St. Peter of Arlington. One of their most highly regarded players, Red Weisgerber, played with their opponents, so when he comes back to the fold it will give the Alumni boys a decided advantage.

The more experienced Alumni decided the game over the St. Peters. The crowd was thrilled by a rough and tumble game. Hard drive of the Alumni overcame the height advantage held by the St. Peters boys. These teams will probably meet again this season.

The Karstens American girls will oppose the St. Peter girls of Glenview in the second game. Last year these teams split victories, both games being decided by a two or three point lead. The Karstens girls because of lack of height, feature fast floor work and steady defense, while the St. Peter girls have height and several extraordinary long shot experts.

In last week's contest with the Wheaton Y the Karstens girls easily much needed because of their improved team play. The girls lost, but looked like a real ball team in the making. A little better average on their long shots and free throws and there might have been a different story to tell. With their new found team work and a little nod from Lady Luck the girls will make defeats scarce the remainder of the year.

The new front line of Brodnan, Capt. Diederich and Geiseke, added much needed scoring punch, while Kastning and Weinrich played a smart and steady defense. Paddock's all around play was a pleasure to see. The aggressiveness of Boyles and Gauthier made a nicely balanced ball club. Other new girls are pushing some of the veterans for their jobs so with competition from within play will improve from week to week.

Cardinals Down Barrington In First Conference Game

Arlington Overtakes
Bronchos To Win, 24-20;
Tornadoes Outclass Colts

Had the Arlington and Barrington high school team rehearsed their act several times they couldn't have put on much more of a thriller than they did last Friday night. The game was the first of the N. W. conference season and both teams were on edge to come out a winner.

In spite of the bad weather the gym was well filled and a good crowd of Arlington fans were present.

The tempo of the evening started slowly while Arlington's "Lights" clearly out-classed the home lights. But as the heavyweights teams took the floor the atmosphere changed, apparently sensing the game to come the rooting by the two rival crowds increased.

The game itself began fast and gradually speeded up. The two officials were handling the game well and kept it one of the fastest seen in the conference.

Arlington led at the quarter 14-3, but it was only by a determination not to give up that they stayed in the game. Four goals were taken away from the Cardinals (and rightfully so) before one was allowed by the officials. Some violation of the rules just preceding each basket nullified them. Barrington started off with a field goal. Arlington followed by a point on a free throw.

The Cardinals added a point then Arlington made their first basket. Four new men went into the Cardinal lineup to begin the second quarter and they were unable to check Barrington who ran the score up on them to 14-8 at the half.

Then the real fun of the evening started. Arlington's starting lineup took the floor and began at once the task of closing the gap. Barrington fought back but during this quarter the Cardinals tallied four field goals and two free throws for ten points while the Bronchos could get only half that many, yet were still leading going into the fourth quarter 19-18.

The fans had been on their feet most of the time during this quarter, but were kept in an uproar by the tenacity of the scrap during the last eight minutes. After a few moments Barrington got a free throw to lead 20-18 and hung onto this narrow lead for a short time when Arlington scored from the field to tie it up at 20-20.

With about three minutes to go Arlington tossed in two baskets in quick succession to tie the game away. Barrington tried desperately in these closing minutes, but Arlington was the cooler under pressure and maintained their lead to 24-20.

Niles Center Surprises Leyden

Niles Center looms as one of the strongest teams in the league following their 35-21 victory over Leyden Friday. Watson of Leyden speaks of the Niles team as being both big and fast. They are good on a quick break down the floor.

Playing their third game of the week last Saturday Ela lost to the big Lake Forest crew 30-24. They had beaten McHenry 30-27 on Tuesday in a game in which they scored two baskets in the last 10 seconds, never having been ahead up to that time. Libertyville met Dundee Saturday night and lost 32-12. Dundee has three regulars from the team that advanced to the state tournament last season. The only non-conference game this week that has come to our attention is Wauconda at Barrington Saturday night, December 11.

Ela Is Not Over Rated

Wesner's team was not going as well as in the McHenry games and anyone who has seen the overrating Ela all we can say is to take them on and see how you come out. Lots can happen in the course of a season though and we would be willing to wager that the Palatine boys will put up stiffer opposition when they meet Ela in a return game January 21.

Another Week of Close Ones Predicted

How would you pick the winners this week? Frankly we don't know. The Leyden game at Libertyville should be the top one on the schedule and anyone's game. Warren showed her strength against Libertyville and should be the toughest kind of opposition to Lake Forest who was idle last week. Wauconda came close to beating Antioch and should have an even chance against Grant who moved out of Bensenville last week. Niles will give the Cardinals a hard battle and are the favorites. Ela looks to be a game lead for following such a policy. Under the new rules it is more than a one man job to keep a closely contested game under proper control and do justice to the boys who are playing. The conference has gone on record as opposing an over emphasis upon winning and striving for championships as being detrimental to the boys in a variety of ways. If the conference wants to do something which will make basketball a safer, cleaner game where respect for officials and opponents will be fostered in both players and fans it should require two officials. The answer that it is too expensive may be met by stating that we are convinced there are plenty of competent young officials right here in the conference who would be willing to accept a rather low fee to serve as a second man on the league games.

Barrington Has Two Officials

Barrington is the only school in the conference which is hiring two officials for all her basketball games this season. A number of other schools are having two referees on a few of their important games, but Clark is the only coach going the extra way. He should be commended for following such a policy. Under the new rules it is more than a one man job to keep a closely contested game under proper control and do justice to the boys who are playing. The conference has gone on record as opposing an over emphasis upon winning and striving for championships as being detrimental to the boys in a variety of ways. If the conference wants to do something which will make basketball a safer, cleaner game where respect for officials and opponents will be fostered in both players and fans it should require two officials. The answer that it is too expensive may be met by stating that we are convinced there are plenty of competent young officials right here in the conference who would be willing to accept a rather low fee to serve as a second man on the league games.

Rate Officials Each Week

Each week of the season Mr. Crawford of Libertyville is sending out rating sheets for each coach to fill out in which he gives his impression of the officials who worked the game his team played. These will be used by Mr. Crawford in his work of securing referees for the conference. This is a good move in the direction of improving the quality of officiating in the league.

Officials in this week's games are Hawley and Schwartz at Palatine, Ashley and Smith at Libertyville, McLean at Bensenville, Harshbarger at Warren, Janousek at Arlington, and Schoenholz at Grant.

Have Tough Schedule

Bensenville high usually beats the Alumni in their annual game. Last year with a green team they downed the recent graduates in convincing style. This year, however the edge appeared to be entirely with the high school, but for the first time in several years they lost 22-20. Coach Johnson has a pretty good team in prospect, but from now on has a mighty tough schedule before the holidays. Having lost a heart breaker to Grant by two points the orange team must meet Ela, Leyden and Arlington in succession. In fact Bensenville has the toughest schedule for the season of any of the small schools.

Default of Grant Injured

Default, star athlete at Grant, will play little basketball this season. He suffered a broken leg in the last football game and will be out of basketball until late in the year. Default was one of the best football men in the conference, played guard on the basketball team for two seasons and last spring was one of the stars in the conference track meet. As we remember he won the javelin throw, placed second in the discus, and third in the shot put. His loss is a blow to Coach Rasinski's cage plans.

the finish.

During this second half the Cardinals lost two men on personals. Julligan was the first to leave the court shortly after the second half started. O'Hagan went out just before the finish, but able substitutes in the persons of Phillips and Folkman came in for them. Palatine And Arlington Hold First And Second Place In Lutheran League

Roselle Defeated By One Point At Hands of Des Plaines

Arlington maintained their place in the Lutheran Basketball League last week-end, which saw a few changes in the standings. The Arlington boys piled up the highest score of the season when they downed Norwood Park 67 to 16.

The tall boys "twit" the three-cornered pants" took advantage of their height in piling up the large score. G. Weisgerber scored 24 points to lead his team in points scored.

Itasca moved back into third place when they beat Park Ridge 25 to 25. The Itasca team played a much better game than they had the last couple of games. Park Ridge was handicapped by the shortage of reserve strength.

Palatine swapped Glenview 41 to 12 to hold the lead in the league. Glenview slipped back into their slump and didn't offer much opposition for the strong Palatine team.

Des Plaines eked out a victory over Roselle when they won 37 to 36. It was a rather poorly officiated game. The final result might have been a little different if the officiating had been a bit more strict. As it was, the teams got away with a lot of things that they would not have under ordinary circumstances.

River Grove snapped out of its slump and defeated Norwood Park 50 to 34 for their first victory of the season. The defeat dropped Norwood Park to last place in the league. E. Fick scored 23 points for his team.

Next week's games will see Arlington pitted against Des Plaines and Park Ridge against Palatine. On Sunday, Roselle will play Norwood Park. Glenview will play Itasca and Palatine will play River Grove.

Seek Better Prices For Onion Sets

If the onion set growers of Cook county want a marketing agreement under the Agricultural Adjustment Act to help them get better prices, they can have it.

Assurance of this fact was given at a meeting of leading onion set growers with officials of the Illinois Agricultural Association and Agricultural Adjustment Administration in Chicago, Dec. 1, reports the IAA. The growers' leaders went home to call a meeting to determine whether or not a two-thirds majority would sign a marketing agreement.

Cook county onion set growers produce close to 85 per cent of all the seed onions grown in the United States. Present prices range from 50 cents to 85 cents a bushel, growers state, is below cost of production. They claim that it costs at least 85 cents a bushel to produce sets.

"We ought to get at least $1.35 to $1.50 a bushel for onion sets," commented Tunis Verduin, president of the Dutch Valley Growers, Inc. of South Holland. Onion sets have sold as high as $3 to $5 a bushel.

"The bulk of the onion sets produced by the 400 to 5000 growers are marketed through some 20 to 25 shippers including the three co-ops, Dutch Valley, the Illinois Onion Sets Exchange, and Calumet Growers, Inc. Therefore it should be comparatively easy to control marketing so as to net the grower a fair price. Just now the market is panic and some growers are selling far below cost."

Banks Collins and Porter Taylor of the AAA marketing section attended the conference. Collins outlined provisions of the law under which the growers might receive assistance. Harry W. Day, director of fruit and vegetable marketing for the IAA, presided. Harvey Adair, president, and several directors, also C. A. Hughes, farm adviser, and assistant adviser Glover of the Cook County Farm Bureau,

Icy Road Blamed For 2 Accidents In Same Spot

Two accidents occurred at the same place last Friday because of icy pavement.

Milwaukee avenue, one-half mile north of Sanders road, was responsible for the skidding of the cars of Mrs. Paul Kolb, 5549 Glenwood avenue, Chicago, and Dr. Kagan, Stewart building, State street, Chicago. The accidents occurred within a few hours of each other.

"Truth About Germany"

tegrity of his morals. Whatever opinion one may have of his political methods, it cannot be denied that Hitler has been the savior of his nation." Contrasting the low state of morality throughout Germany before the Hitler dictatorship with the high standard today, he gave Hitler all credit for the moral rebirth of the German nation. "There is no question of Hitler's supreme authority today," he said, "but even a short visit will convince every observer that the people as a whole are enthusiastic supporters and willing subjects of their leader. Under Hitler the divided nation has been welded into a unity of purpose and action which is marvelous to see."

The economic problems, due to the Jewish boycott, are serious, but the Germans are striving to solve them, he stated, with their usual thoroughness and tenacity.

Germany is a country smaller than Texas, but is compelled to provide a living for 65,000,000 people, although lacking many of the raw materials needed by a modern industrial nation. "But with all these handicaps," he declared, "Hitler has performed miracles in reducing the number of unemployed from eight million to less than one million. He explained the system of labor camps requiring every young man to give six months labor to his nation. The standard of living, the speaker said, was lower than in our country, but the German worker has a sense of security because of old age, unemployment, health, and other forms of social insurance. He received the impression, he said, of a contented people working with pride and confidence for their national ideals.

On the subject of the treatment of Germany's Jewish population, Pastor Blanke stated with warmth, that our American newspapers are giving us a much distorted picture. "The efforts of Hitler against the international financiers, who entered Germany from Russia, Poland and other central European countries at the time of the collapse of the German mark. With the high value of their foreign money they gained control of most of Germany's industry, business, banks, and land and thus became the real masters of the nation." Hitler's chief objective, he stated, was to break the strange hold of the big Jewish capitalists. Since this has been accomplished, no law-abiding Jew is persecuted today, and "business is going on as usual." Since the Jewish people forms only one per cent of the population they are permitted to engage in the professions on equal footing.

Most misleading were his observations on the religious conflict in Germany. "Before Hitler," he said, "the churches were empty. At now they are thronged with crowds of eager worshippers. It is considered patriotic to be a good church man." He branded it as a lie that the Nazi party is attempting to force the ancient German religion upon the nation and is persecuting for their religious beliefs. The American press, he said, is laying up a few religious radicals, who have little influence with the mass of the church people.

Most of Germany's religious growth, he contended, are the outgrowth of the pernicious system of state church. The Lutheran and the Catholic church are being supported by a religious tax levied by government and thus in a sense are government employees. "Hitler will not tolerate any criticism of his policies from the pulpit," the speaker explained, "and he insists that the clergy restrict their preaching to religious and moral subjects. What would happen," he asked, "if any Democratic postmaster appointed by his party in power were to denounce the Democratic president? He would lose his job." Thus, he said, Hitler will not permit a preacher, who draws his salary from state funds, to use his pulpit for political opposition.

Pastor Blanke concluded his address with a description of the German character and ideals of life. He praised the German thoroughness of workmanship, his loyalty to his ideals, his love of home and family, and his contentment with the simpler joys of life. "The most appealing quality of the German," he stated, "is his 'Gemuetlichkeit,' that is, his unhurried calmness and his ability to derive much pleasure from simple diversions." "Germany," he concluded, "wants peace and needs peace to grow strong economically and politically and if her former conquerors will be wise and tolerant enough to correct the injustices of the Versailles treaty, the peace of Europe is assured."

I believe in safety because the loss of my ability to work means suffering for those I love most. Without my help they are thrown to the mercies of a more or less indifferent world.
I believe in safety because it is effective. It provides real protection for myself and others.
I believe in safety because it is by patriotic duty to do so. No community can afford to have accidents to its citizens.
I believe in safety because I want to live the full length of my life and enjoy it to the utmost.
I believe in safety because I do not want to depend upon charity.
These are just a few of the reasons why we should all believe in safety. Please read them carefully and think them over.

"THE HARVEST NOW IS O'ER"

By WALTER HANSEN
Spring passed on, the summer came,
And our harvest now is o'er;
The grain and corn from fertile fields
Are safely gathered now in store.

Once again a wonder great
God suffered us to see—
The farmer sowed once more his seed
The Lord gave growth—maturity.

Wind and calm the Lord supplied,
Shade and sun and rain;
Life He gave each little seed
That we might reap with joy again.

The fields this year have richly borne,
Hence filled our larders stand—
A good provider is our Lord,
He gives with a liberal hand.

Manifold each seed brought forth,
The Lord of harvest willed it so,
And thankful now we raise our voice
Because He suffered them to grow.

Man may sow, but may not reap
Unless it please the Lord;
The harvest is a gift of love
For which our thanks we should afford.

GRUMBLES

An inquiring reporter from a Chicago newspaper visited the Arlington Heights municipal building last week, giving those public and semi-public officials who come in contact with the public everyday an opportunity to voice their sentiments regarding the establishment of a national grumble day.

There is probably no one group of citizens in Arlington Heights who hear more grumbles than does the treasurer's office, the water department, the health department and the other boys whose job it is to enforce the municipal regulations. They would all welcome a National grumble day if a whole year of grumbles could be crowded into that day. Here is what they told the reporter of the Sunday Times:

Martha E. Jackson, registered nurse: "Of course, we all like to grumble occasionally, but such a day would be a wonderful thing for the people who always are finding fault. They might not like it, but it would be a good rest for the people who have to listen to them. If we had to do all of our grumbling in one day, perhaps we would not do so much."

W. F. Meyer, collector: "The idea is good if they limit it to one day, but imagine how terrible it would be if they had a 'grumbling week.' One day would be plenty. Some people always are complaining about something. The government would be doing the rest of us a favor if it restricted those people to one day in which to air their troubles. I certainly could do all my 'grumbling' in one day."

W. W. Luehring, superintendent: "It would mean 364 days of peace if they would limit 'grumbling' to one day a year. I get terribly tired of listening to other people's complaints. Of course, I like to 'grumble' myself, but if it were allowed only one day a year, I would be more than willing to comply."

Fred H. Lorenzen, treasurer: "It would be a pleasure just being alive for 364 days of the year if they had a national 'grumble day.' They have days set aside for other things and there is no reason why they should not have one for the 'grumblers.' I might even make use of such a day myself."

There were others interviewed aside from village employees. Among them was Miss Gertrude Wiese, whose job it is to take trouble complaints over the phone at the Dreyer Electric Co. If the public was given a regular grumble day, it would be just one straw too many in the mind of Miss Wiese, who says that she would spend that day deep in the woods.

"But with all these handicaps," he declared, "Hitler has performed miracles in reducing the number of unemployed from eight million to less than one million. He explained the system of labor camps requiring every young man to give six months labor to his nation. The standard of living, the speaker said, was lower than in our country, but the German worker has a sense of security because of old age, unemployment, health, and other forms of social insurance. He received the impression, he said, of a contented people working with pride and confidence for their national ideals.

On the subject of the treatment of Germany's Jewish population, Pastor Blanke stated with warmth, that our American newspapers are giving us a much distorted picture. "The efforts of Hitler," he said, "were directed against the international financiers, who entered Germany from Russia, Poland and other central European countries at the time of the collapse of the German mark. With the high value of their foreign money they gained control of most of Germany's industry, business, banks, and land and thus became the real masters of the nation." Hitler's chief objective, he stated, was to break the strangle hold of the big Jewish capitalists. Since this has been accomplished, no law-abiding Jew is persecuted today, and "business is going on as usual." Since the Jewish people forms only one per cent of the population they are permitted to engage in the professions on an equal percentage.

Most interesting were his observations on the religious conflict in Germany. "Before Hitler," he said, "the churches were empty, at now they are thronged with crowds of eager worshippers. It is considered patriotic to be a good church man." He branded it as a crime that the Nazi party is attempting to force the ancient German religion upon the nation and is persecuting the confessions of the churches for their religious beliefs. The American press, he said, is laying up a few religious radicals, who have little influence with the mass of the church people.

Most of Germany's religious problems, he contended, are the outgrowth of the pernicious system of a state church. The Lutheran and Catholic church are being supported by a religious tax levied by the government and thus in a sense are government employees. "Hitler will not tolerate any criticism of his policies from the pulpit," the speaker explained, "and he insists that the clergy restrict their preaching to religious and moral subjects. What would happen," he asked, "if any Democratic postmaster appointed by his party in power were to denounce the Democratic president? He would lose his job." Thus, he said, Hitler will not permit a preacher, who draws his salary from state funds, to use his pulpit for political opposition.

Pastor Blanke concluded his address with a description of the German character and ideals of life. He praised the German thoroughness of workmanship, his loyalty to his ideals, his love of home and family, and his contentment with the simpler joys of life. "The most appealing quality of the German," he stated, "is his 'Gemuetlichkeit,' that is, his unhurried calmness and his ability to derive much pleasure from simple diversions." "Germany," he concluded, "wants peace and needs peace to grow strong economically and politically and if her former conquerors will be wise and tolerant enough to correct the injustices of the Versailles treaty, the peace of Europe is assured."

I believe in safety because the loss of my ability to work means suffering for those I love most. Without my help they are thrown to the mercies of a more or less indifferent world.

I believe in safety because it is effective. It provides real protection for myself and others.

I believe in safety because it is by patriotic duty to do so. No community can afford to have accidents to its citizens.

I believe in safety because I want to live the full length of my life and enjoy it to the utmost.

I believe in safety because I do not want to depend upon charity.

These are just a few of the reasons why we should all believe in safety. Please read them carefully and think them over.

"THE HARVEST NOW IS O'ER"

By WALTER HANSEN
Spring passed on, the summer came,
And our harvest now is o'er;
The grain and corn from fertile fields
Are safely gathered now in store.

Once again a wonder great
God suffered us to see—
The farmer sowed once more his seed.
The Lord gave growth—maturity.

Wind and calm the Lord supplied,
Shade and sun and rain;
Life He gave each little seed
That we might reap with joy again.

The fields this year have richly borne,
Hence filled our larders stand—
A good provider is our Lord.
He gives with a liberal hand.

Manifold each seed brought forth,
The Lord of harvest willed it so,
And thankful now we raise our voice
Because He suffered them to grow.

Man may sow, but may not reap
Unless it please the Lord;
The harvest is a gift of love
For which our thanks we should afford.

GRUMBLES

An inquiring reporter from a Chicago newspaper visited the Arlington Heights municipal building last week, giving those public and semi-public officials who come in contact with the public everyday an opportunity to voice their sentiments regarding the establishment of a national grumble day.

There is probably no one group of citizens in Arlington Heights who hear more grumbles than does the treasurer's office, the water department, the health department and the other boys whose job it is to enforce the municipal regulations. They would all welcome a National grumble day if a whole year of grumbles could be crowded into that day. Here is what they told the reporter of the Sunday Times:

Martha E. Jackson, registered nurse: "Of course, we all like to grumble occasionally, but such a day would be a wonderful thing for the people who always are finding fault. They might not like it, but it would be a good rest for the people who have to listen to them. If we had to do all of our grumbling in one day, perhaps we would not do so much."

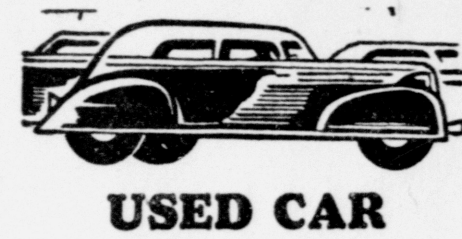

W. F. Meyer, collector: "The idea is good if they limit it to one day, but imagine how terrible it would be if they had a 'grumbling week.' One day would be plenty. Some people always are complaining about something. The government would be doing the rest of us a favor if it restricted those people to one day in which to air their troubles. I certainly could do all my 'grumbling' in one day."

W. W. Luehring, superintendent: "It would mean 364 days of peace if they would limit 'grumbling' to one day a year. I get terribly tired of listening to other people's complaints. Of course, I like to 'grumble' myself, but if I were allowed only one day a year, I would be more than willing to comply."

Fred H. Lorenzen, treasurer: "It would be a pleasure just being alive for 364 days of the year if they had a national 'grumble day.' They have days set aside for other things and there is no reason why they should not have one for the 'grumblers.' I might even make use of such a day myself."

There were others interviewed aside from village employees. Among them was Miss Gertrude Wies, whose job it is to take trouble complaints over the phone at the Dreyer Electric Co. If the public was given a regular grumble day, it would be just one straw too many in the mind of Miss Wies, who says that she would spend that day deep in the woods.

GLEE CLUB SINGS FOR SCHOOL

Last Wednesday, November 24, in keeping with the Thanksgiving
spirit the Glee Club sang several
songs for both the North and South
schools. Among the songs were the following: "Now Thank We All Our
God," "Harvest Hymn," "Let Us
With a Gladness Mind."

Now that Thanksgiving is over
the Club has begun working on Christmas selections. They plan to give a short program for the student assembly just before Christmas.

SEWING CLASS PROJECTS

Pot holders in the form of
houses are the latest projects under construction. This work is being done by the seventh grade girls
and a few of the girls from eighth.
It is the hope of all these girls
that each one can make a set of
holders and use them for Christmas presents.

Also, many of the girls are hem-
ming towels and designing the centers of them.

GIRL'S AUXILIARY ADDED TO PATROL STAFF

The Patrol Boys are very grateful to the children of the North
school for their co-operation with Patrol. The students are obeying
splendidly and are remaining at
home until the proper time for returning to school. All these things
help the boys very much and the
representative of the Patrol expressed his gratitude at the last
executive board meeting of the student council.

Keeping order in the halls, watching the lines of students, and keeping the rooms in order are some of the latest duties of the Girls Auxiliary. These duties have been faithfully carried out, much to the advantage of everyone.

A part of the work of the Auxiliary will be to patrol the line of
girls going to the gym classes,
keeping everyone safe and free
from the dangers of passing automobiles.

Patrol Boys will be appointed to keep order among the boys as they go to their classes.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLASSES START

Gym classes have been started in
the upper grades of the North
school for both boys and girls. Arrangements have been made for the use of one of the church gymnasi-
ums for three afternoons a week.
An examination of the heart, lungs,
and throat of each child taking part
in this program was required. The survey revealed several cases requiring remedial attention. Most of these have been taken care of by
the parents.

The physical education program
will be under the direction of Mr.
Vanderbeek, with Miss Dorothy C.
Sodt assisting. The general plan

at present is to encourage the participation of every able bodied child
in some form of sport. Several class meets have been arranged
with near-by school systems, at
which time several teams in basketball, volley-ball, table-tennis, etc.,
will be matched against each other.
It is hoped that this plan will help
to develop interest and ability in every child in school.

SOUTH SCHOOL NOTES

Norinne LeFever visited the telephone office last Saturday. She told her classmates about some of
the interesting things that she experienced there.

Harold Smith went hunting with his father last Friday.

Laurel Lawbaugh and Shirley
Blackburn made a chart pertaining to the Spanish explorers about
which they have studied.

A poster on "Our Books" was
made by some of the students of the fifth grade. Each child has his name printed on the outside of the wall-pockets. Each time a child gives a report of a book he or she
has read they receive a slip of colored paper, to be deposited in the wall pockets of the chart. This helps to record the number of books
read by each child and stimulates
the amount of books read.

JUNIOR NURSES' CLUB

A Junior Nurses' Club has been
recently established at the South
school. The members consist of girls from the fifth and sixth grades
with Miss Martha E. Jackson, R. N.,
the school nurse, and Miss Walk as
advisors.

Anita Fredrickson and Nancy
Crumlish were elected president
and secretary, respectively, and
many plans are being made for an enjoyable and beneficial year for
the club.

NORTH SCHOOL NOTES

Various airplane stories were written by the second grade of the North school, some of which appear below:

The Airplane

I saw an airplane. I saw a transport. It was a big one. I saw a hangar with airplanes. We are making airplanes in school.

Bonnie Langford

The Dog and the Airplane
There was a monoplane. There was a little puppy. The monoplane
was in the air. The men in the monoplane saw the puppy. One of the men said, "I will take a parachute." So he did take a parachute down to the puppy.

Nancy Nichols

The children of the third grade
are making reports on various books. Some of the best were:

The Eskimo Twins

These little Eskimo twins live in the far north. Their names are Menie and Monnie. These little Eskimo twins have two little dogs.
Their names are Nip and Tup. I liked the part when the Angakok
(the medicine man) could not get out of the tunnel. I enjoyed this story very much.

Jean Freymuth

The Adventures of a Brownie
This story was about a little
Brownie and the pranks he played.
One part of the book was about
the brownie getting foot-prints all over the table cloth. I enjoyed this book very much.

The P. T. A. award of two dollars
was won by Miss Laughlin's room,
Grade 4, North school, for having
the greatest per cent of parents to become members of the association.

FIRST-NORTH

The first grade has begun reading
a second pre-primer called "Rides
and Slides."
Orange crates are being used to
make furniture for the playhouse.

ger gave his annual message pointing out the progress of the year and
stressing the need for additional
manpower to increase the effectiveness of the program to provide scouting and cubbing for a still greater number of boys.

In his address on "Crooked Trees
and Straight Men" Carl J. Carlson,
the new Regional Scout Executive
of Region Seven pointed out the
need for wise guidance of youth in
the formative period of their lives,
comparing trees which grow crooked and narrow because of adversary growing conditions with straight
trees which have the proper planting and care.

Opens Retail Paint Store At Factory

National Paint Manufacturers Now Have Local Outlet

A Fred'k. A. Stresen-Reuter
paint store is opening at Bensenville
in the factory building at 300
W. Main street, Saturday. Harold
V. Cook, Garden avenue, Bensenville, is in charge.

The Fred'k. A. Stresen-Reuter
corporation was formed in 1911 by Mr. Fred'k. A. Stresen-Reuter and
engaged in the business of sales
agents for domestic and foreign
manufacturers of dry colors, chemicals, and minerals. They sold the
minerals as mined and manufactured in this country to the paint
and putty manufacturer. The chemicals were sold to the dry color
and chemical manufacturer and the
imported dry colors and pigments
were used in the printing ink and artistic color industry.

This corporation also owned their own mines from which they obtained domestic minerals and from the start of the world war they manufactured some of the chemicals
which were previously imported and
were used by the paint and varnish
trade. Chief of these chemicals
were the products made with cobalt
metal which is used as a drier for
all paint and varnish.

By 1916 they had built their first
chemical factory and were engaged
in the sale of large quantities of
heavy chemicals with branch offices established in all of the principle cities in this country. At the close of the war there were a great
many concerns in a similar line of
business that were forced in bankruptcy, but this corporation was
able to carry through the readjustment period and in 1922 they consolidated their offices with the factory unit, and determined to sell
only products which they manufactured themselves, adding to their chemical factory first a varnish factory and then a paint grinding factory.

They discontinued importing and
selling for other manufacturers and
now make a complete line of colors,
enamels, and varnishes for household and industrial use. They also manufacture all cobalt products

and other chemicals used in the manufacture of paint and printing
ink, and have just completed and
opened a modern varnish plant in Bensenville where they will make
large quantities of oils and var-
nishes for the paint and printing
ink manufacturer. The paint grinding department and the chemical factory remain in operation in Chicago.

Mr. Fred'k. A. Stresen-Reuter
continues as president of the corporation and the other officers are trained men who have been with
the corporation for over ten years.
They also employ chemists and
maintain their own research laboratories.

The business of this corporation
extends from Coast to Coast and
they supply materials that are used
in fifteen industries. The yearly
business of the corporation has grown steadily since 1925 and they have sufficient ground area for further expansion at Bensenville.

GLEE CLUB SINGS FOR SCHOOL

Last Wednesday, November 24, in loping with the Thanksgiving
spirit the Glee Club sang several
songs for both the North and South
schools. Among the songs were the following: "Now Thank We All Our
God," "Harvest Hymn," "Let Us
With a Gladness Mind."
Now that Thanksgiving is over
the Club has begun working on Christmas selections. They plan to give a short program for the student assembly just before Christmas.

SEWING CLASS PROJECTS

Pot holders in the form of
houses are the latest projects under construction. This work is being done by the seventh grade girls
and a few of the girls from eighth.
It is the hope of all these girls
that each one can make a set of
holders and use them for Christmas presents.
Also, many of the girls are hem-
ming towels and designing the centers of them.

GIRL'S AUXILIARY ADDED TO PATROL STAFF

The Patrol Boys are very grateful to the children of the North
school for their co-operation with Patrol. The students are obeying
splendidly and are remaining at
home until the proper time for returning to school. All these things
help the boys very much and the
representative of the Patrol expressed his gratitude at the last
executive board meeting of the Student Council.

Keeping order in the halls, watching the lines of students, and keeping the rooms in order are some
of the latest duties of the Girls
Auxiliary. These duties have been faithfully carried out, much to the advantage of everyone.
A part of the work of the Auxiliary will be to patrol the line of
girls going to the gym classes,
keeping everyone safe and free
from the dangers of passing automobiles.
Patrol Boys will be appointed to
keep order among the boys as they
go to their classes.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLASSES START

Gym classes have been started in
the upper grades of the North
school for both boys and girls. Arrangements have been made for the
use of one of the church gymnasi-
ums for three afternoons a week.
An examination of the heart, lungs,
and throat of each child taking part
in this program was required. The
survey revealed several cases requiring remedial attention. Most of these have been taken care of by
the parents.

The physical education program
will be under the direction of Mr.
Vanderbeek, with Miss Dorothy C.
Sodt assisting. The general plan

at present is to encourage the participation of every able bodied child
in some form of sport. Several
class meets have been arranged
with near-by school systems, at
which time several teams in basket-
ball, volleyball, table tennis, etc.,
will be matched against each other.
It is hoped that this plan will help
to develop interest and ability in
every child in school.

Norinne LeFever visited the
telephone office last Saturday. She
told her classmates about some of
the interesting things that she experienced there.

Harold Smith went hunting with
his father last Friday.
Laurel Lawbaugh and Shirley
Blackburn made a chart pertaining
to the Spanish explorers about
which they have studied.

A poster on "Our Books" was
made by some of the students of
the fifth grade. Each child has his
name printed on the outside of the wall-pockets. Each time a child
gives a report of a book he or she
has read they receive a slip of colored paper, to be deposited in the wall pockets of the chart. This
helps to record the number of books
read by each child and stimulates
the amount of books read.

JUNIOR NURSES' CLUB

A Junior Nurses' Club has been
recently established at the South
school. The members consist of
girls from the fifth and sixth grades
with Miss Martha E. Jackson, R. N.,
the school nurse, and Miss Walk as
advisors.

Anita Fredrickson and Nancy
Crumlish were elected president
and secretary, respectively, and
many plans are being made for an
enjoyable and beneficial year for
the club.

NORTH SCHOOL NOTES

Various airplane stories were
written by the second grade of the North school, some of which appear below:

The Airplane

I saw an airplane. I saw a transport. It was a big one. I saw a hangar with airplanes. We are making airplanes in school.

Bonnie Langford

The Dog and the Airplane
There was a monoplane. There was a little puppy. The monoplane
was in the air. The men in the monoplane saw the puppy. One of the men said, "I will take a parachute." So he did take a parachute
down to the puppy.

Nancy Nichols

The children of the third grade
are making reports on various
books. Some of the best were:

The Eskimo Twins

These little Eskimo twins live in the far north. Their names are Menie and Monnie. These little Es-
kimo twins have two little dogs.
Their names are Nip and Tug. I
liked the part when the Angakok
(the medicine man) could not get out of the tunnel. I enjoyed this story very much.

Jean Freymuth

The Adventures of a Brownie
This story was about a little
Brownie and the pranks he played.
One part of the book was about
the brownie getting foot-prints all
over the table cloth. I enjoyed this book very much.

The P. T. A. award of two dollars

was won by Miss Laughlin's room,
Grade 4, North school, for having
the greatest per cent of parents to
become members of the association.

FIRST-NORTH

The first grade has begun reading
a second pre-primer called "Rides
and Slides."
Orange crates are being used to
make furniture for the playhouse.

ger gave his annual message point-
ing out the progress of the year and
stressing the need for additional
man-power to increase the effectiveness of the program to provide scouting and cubing for a still greater number of boys.

In his address on "Crooked Trees
and Straight Men" Carl J. Carlson,
the new Regional Scout Executive
of Region Seven pointed out the
need for wise guidance of youth in
the formative period of their lives,
comparing trees which grow crooked and narrowed because of adver-
sary growing conditions with straight
trees which have the proper planting and care.

Wonders About Solomon
Jud Tunkins says he wonders if Solomon was really wise enough to take all the advice he gave in his own proverbs.

Opens Retail Paint Store At Factory

National Paint Manufacturers Now Have
Local Outlet

A Fred'k. A. Stresen-Reuter
paint store is opening at Bensenville
in the factory building at 300
W. Main street, Saturday. Harold
V. Cook, Garden avenue, Bensenville,
in charge.

The Fred'k. A. Stresen-Reuter
corporation was formed in 1911 by
Mr. Fred'k. A. Stresen-Reuter and
engaged in the business of sales
agents for domestic and foreign
manufacturers of dry colors, chemicals, and minerals. They sold the
minerals as mined and manufactured in this country to the paint
and patty manufacturer. The chemicals were sold to the dry color
and chemical manufacturer and the
imported dry colors and pigments
were used in the printing ink and art color industry.

This corporation also owned their own mines from which they obtained domestic minerals and from the start of the world war they manufactured some of the chemicals
which were previously imported and
were used by the paint and varnish
trade. Chief of these chemicals
were the products made with cobalt
metal which is used as a drier for
all paint and varnish.

By 1916 they had built their first
chemical factory and were engaged
in the sale of large quantities of
heavy chemicals with branch offices established in all of the principle cities in this country. At the close of the war there were a great
many concerns in a similar line of
business that were forced in bankruptcy, but this corporation was
able to carry through the readjust-
ment period and in 1922 they consolidated their offices with the factory unit, and determined to sell
only products which they manufactured themselves, adding to their chemical factory first a varnish factory and then a paint grinding factory.

They discontinued importing and
selling for other manufacturers and
now make a complete line of colors,
enamels, and varnishes for house-
hold and industrial use. They al-

so manufacture all cobalt products
and other chemicals used in the manufacture of paint and printing
ink, and have just completed and
opened a modern varnish plant in Bensenville where they will make
large quantities of oils and var-
nishes for the paint and printing
ink manufacturer. The paint grinding department and the chemical
factory remain in operation in Chicago.

Mr. Fred'k. A. Stresen-Reuter
continues as president of the corporation and the other officers are
trained men who have been with
the corporation for over ten years.
They also employ chemists and
maintain their own research laboratories.

The business of this corporation
extends from Coast to Coast and
they supply materials that are used
in fifteen industries. The yearly
business of the corporation has
grown steadily since 1925 and they
have sufficient ground area for further expansion at Bensenville.

Box Elder School Visits Stock Show

On Thursday, Dec. 2, the five upper grades of the Box Elder school went to the Union Stock Yards in Chicago. We went to Des Plaines by automobile. From there we went by train to the North Western terminal. We then walked about two blocks and took a street car to the entrance of the yards.

The first hour of our trip was spent inspecting the cattle pens and sheep and hog shed. We saw an auction where car-load lots of prize winning cattle and sheep, which had been exhibited, were sold. The breeds of cattle shown were Hereford, Aberdeen Angus, and Short-horn. As we were leaving the pens, we saw a bloated calf, and a dead cow on a cart drawn by a horse. In the sheep and hog shed, we saw many fat sheep and hogs which were to be killed. There were many sparrows flying around in the shed.

The trip through Armour's Packing House was the most interesting. We saw how cattle, hogs and sheep were butchered. Many men work at one animal, but each man has a definite kind of work to do. Some men kill the animal, others skin it, others dress it, and others cut it into its various cuts and pieces. Most of the workers were covered with blood from the animals. Many of the workers wear a mesh glove on their left hand, so they do not get cut by the sharp knives. There is a very unpleasant odor in the slaughtering houses. Most of the workers are colored people. Our guide said that 12,000 hogs were killed in one day, and 240 cattle in an hour. From the slaughtering department, we went through the smoking rooms, the packing department, the storage rooms and the offices of the company. We saw how lard and other products were automatically boxed, packed, and sealed.
During our tour we received doughnuts, corned-beef cubes, and a small ham sandwich.
After we had gone through the

First Nighters At Mexican Bull Fight

Walter Torgler, of Palatine, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. N. L. Thompson and Mrs. Howard of Chicago, returned last week from a trip to Mexico, bringing back with them memories of beautiful scenery, unusual sights, the hospitality of the Mexican people and first hand information regarding bull fights.
The day of their visit to the bull fight arena, chance to see the official opening of the season's "opera." They were fortunate in being able to secure tickets for the "great game," for that is what a bull fight represents in the minds of Mexican people. There is great enthusiasm among the "players" take their places and popular fighters are cheered and walk around the arena acknowledging with bows the plaudits of the crowd.

Ticket scalpers are present and until darts and barbed spears are thrown into the bull, the excitement and enthusiasm recalls one of the big football games in the United States.

Amid the sound of music, and colorful surroundings the matadores and toreadors took the arena with "the condemned" bull as an adversary. So far as the visitors could see the bull had three strikes called upon him before the game started. There was a great show of bravery on the part of the men and the horses were possible innocent victims. The fighters showed great agility, but they spent as much effort in exciting the bull as they did to escape from his onslaughts.
One "kill" was enough for the ladies but crowd was so dense they killed. They could not keep their eyes entirely away from the spectacle, and they admit that as they became accustomed to the brutality and torturing of the bull the horror did not seem so great.
And having witnessed one of the much heralded Mexican bull fights, they do get some pleasure in vividly describing it to their friends, who often shrink from the picture thus painted for them three thousand miles from the actual scene.
While in Mexico, the Torgler party spent three days with Miss Maurine Roberts of Palatine who is attending the University of Mexico and was able to show them many courtesies that made their trip more enjoyable.

The outstanding feature of the entire trip was their visit to the Carlsbad caverns in New Mexico, where they spent five hours with a guide several hundred feet below the normal surface of the earth.
The entire trip was 6,000 miles and was not accomplished without minor mishaps as a punctured crank case caused by stones in the road, a 50 mile drive through the mountains in a heavy fog, the side-swiping of their car by a Texas motorist who was so unaccustomed to driving in snow that he could not handle his car and one blow out. Some of these mishaps occurred miles from any other American and Walter had to talk with the natives with his hands and by signs.

It was a great trip, one that will be long remembered and the sight-seers strongly advise their friends to go and do likewise.
Pure water was ever at a premium. Cafes would advertise that water served therein had been boiled. The visitors from Palatine, after one experience with Mexican food patronized only American restaurants or went partly hungry.

Bowling Notes

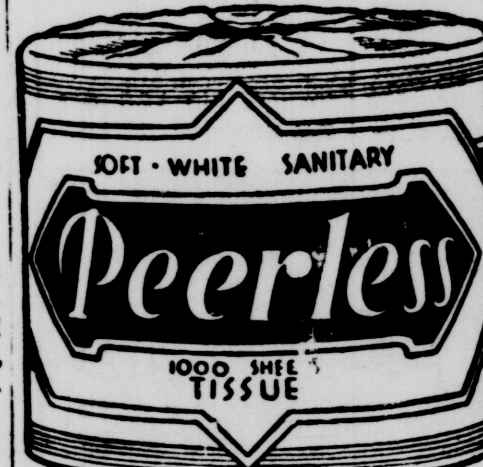

By HERB. HAMMERL

There was plenty of noise Monday night at the alleys. The boys seem to be getting a little more pep as the scores will show. There are fifteen men with an average of 180 or better, which makes a pretty good league. El Rand is slowly going down hill. They lost two games to Cafe, the first being a tie. Cafe

Box Elder School Visits Stock Show

On Thursday, Dec. 2, the five upper grades of the Box Elder school went to the Union Stock Yards in Chicago. We went to Des Plaines by automobile. From there we went by train to the North Western terminal. We then walked about two blocks and took a street car to the entrance of the yards.
The first hour of our trip was spent inspecting the cattle pens and sheep and hog shed. We saw an auction where car-load lots of prize winning cattle and sheep, which had been exhibited, were sold. The breeds of cattle shown were Hereford, Aberdeen Angus, and Short-horn. As we were leaving the pens, we saw a bloated calf, and a dead cow on a cart drawn by a horse. In the sheep and hog shed, we saw many fat sheep and hogs which were to be killed. There were many sparrows flying around in the shed.

The trip through Armour's Packing House was the most interesting. We saw how cattle, hogs and sheep were butchered. Many men work at one animal, but each man has a definite kind of work to do. Some men kill the animal, others skin it, others dress it, and others cut it into its various cuts and pieces. Most of the workers were covered with blood from the animals. Many of the workers wear a mesh glove on their left hand, so they do not get cut by the sharp knives. There is a very unpleasant odor in the slaughtering houses. Most of the workers are colored people. Our guide said that 12,000 hogs were killed in one day, and 240 cattle in an hour. From the slaughtering department, we went through the smoking rooms, the packing department, the storage rooms and the offices of the company. We saw how land and other products were automatically boxed, packed, and sealed.

During our tour we received doughnuts, corned-beef cubes, and a small ham sandwich.

After we had gone through the

First Nighters At Mexican Bull Fight

Walter Torgler, of Palatine, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. N. L. Thompson and Mrs. Howard of Chicago, returned last week from a trip to Mexico, bringing back with them memories of beautiful scenery, unusual sights, the hospitality of the Mexican people and first hand information regarding bull fights.
The day of their visit to the bull fight arena, chance to be the official opening of the season's "opera." They were fortunate in being able to secure tickets for the "great game," for that is what a bull fight represents in the minds of Mexican people. There is great enthusiasm as the "players" take their places and popular fighters are cheered and walk around the arena acknowledging with bows the plaudits of the crowd.

Ticket scalpers are present and until darts and barbed spears are thrown into the bull, the excitement and enthusiasm recalls one of the big football games in the United States.
Amid the sound of music, and colorful surroundings the matadores and toreros took the arena with "the condemned" bull as an adversary. So far as the visitors could see, the bull had three strikes called upon him before the game started. There was a great show of bravery on the part of the men and the horses were possible innocent victims. The fighters showed great agility, but they spent as much effort in exciting the bull as they did to escape from his onslaughts.
One "kill" was enough for the ladies but crowd was so dense they killed. They could not keep their eyes entirely away from the spectacle, and they admit that as they became accustomed to the brutality and torturing of the bull the horror did not seem so great.
And having witnessed one of the much heralded Mexican bull fights, they do get some pleasure in vividly describing it to their friends, who often shrink from the picture thus painted for them three thousand miles from the actual scene.
While in Mexico, the Torgler party spent three days with Miss Maurine Roberts of Palatine who is attending the University of Mexico and who was able to show them many courtesies that made their trip more enjoyable.

The outstanding feature of the entire trip was their visit to the Carlsbad caverns in New Mexico, where they spent five hours with a guide several hundred feet below the normal surface of the earth.
The entire trip was 6,000 miles and was not accomplished without minor mishaps as a punctured crank case caused by stones in the road, a 50 mile drive through the mountains in a heavy fog; the side-swiping of their car by a Texas motorist who was so unaccustomed to driving in snow that he could not handle his car and one blow out. Some of these mishaps occurred miles from any other American and Walter had to talk with the natives with his hands and by signs.
It was a great trip, one that will be long remembered and the sight-seers strongly advise their friends to go and do likewise.
Pure water was ever at a premium. Cafes would advertise that water served therein had been boiled. The visitors from Palatine, after one experience with Mexican food patinized only American restaurants or went partly hungry.

Bowling Notes
By HERB HAMMERL
There was plenty of noise Monday night at the alleys. The boys seem to be getting a little more pep as the scores will show. There are fifteen men with an average of 180 or better, which makes a pretty good league. El Rand is slowly going down hill. They lost two games to Cafe, the first being a tie. Cafe won the roll-off.
On 3 and 4 Blatz continued on their rampage taking two games from Krause Market. "Dooley" got 602 for Krause, and the "Kingfish" got 633 for Blatz. Have you noticed the swell new cap Fred Kehe is wearing? He won't take a chance hanging it on a hook. I don't blame you, Fred.
Over on 5 and 6 the Hamms took two games on the chin, but the last game was something else again. Arlington Elevators led by "Coaly" Clague, who is back in the elevator lineup, won the first two games easily. Dixie couldn't yell the boys into the proper mood, but it took effect the last game. Hamms got 1058 the last game with "Little" Joe getting 156. Carl Huber was high with 646 and a 257 game. Turf got the "Booby" prize with 461.

BOX ELDER SCHOOL
We are having a card and bunco party for the members of our district Friday evening.
Our Christmas program will be Dec. 22. We hope many friends will come to help us make merry.
Several girls have become interested in sewing. They intend to have a sewing exhibit in a few months.
The boys are making tie racks and other things out of wood.
Marvin Johnson, Alda Johnson, Margery Scharringhausen, Bernice Heimsoth, Norman Dobbs, Andrew Sokolowski, Lois Ann Schnell, Geo. Scharringhausen, and Edmund Pingel, wrote compositions about our last field trip. Edmund's was selected as the best one. Edmund is 13 years old and in the eighth grade.
